She was born October 04, 1899 in Allentown, Mobile County, AL, and died May 16, 1989 in Mobile County, AL.

Notes for WILLIAM DAWSON TANNER, JR.:

William was also known as "Shep". He owned and operated Tanner Auto Parts where stories of his stature abound. He was once seen to lift a car barehanded while an employee removed a wheel and on another occasion to stop the engine of a car by grounding the spark plugs with only his hands. His brother Irby (Bud) Tanner once spoke of an incident when "Shep" reached to the ground in front of him and retrieved a snake by the tail and snapped it like a whip to break its neck and kill it. He and his wife, Eula, created Blue Bird Hardware not long before his death and she continued to operate it and build it into a major business in Mobile, Alabama.

Notes for EULA AGNES ALLEN:

Eula created, with her husband William (Shep), Tanner Auto Parts and later, Blue Bird Hardware soon before Shep's death. She built Blue Bird Hardware to be a major business in Mobile, AL and was known for her business savvy as well as her integrity.
